SATURDAY, OCTOBER 26, 1901.

THE Pan American congress is having a great time in Mexico City, where the delegates are entertained with all the elegant hospitality which usually characterizes the treatment accorded by our Mexican neighbors to their visitors.

THE sugar trust has it in for the southern sugar grower, if report be true. This trust now has a capital of a hundred million dollars, and will employ a fourth of that sum to develop the sugar industry in the West Indies. It is claimed that the move is intended to wipe out the beet and cane sugar industry in this country, which it may succeed in doing unless something can be done to wipe out the trust first.

It appears that the main object for the existence of the Border News of Brownsville is to fight the Hon. J. B. Wells. It is characteristic of some men to be envious of the prosperity of their neighbors. Wells has done more to advertise the lower Rio Grande country than any other man or agency in that section; and, if his enemies down there succeed in injuring him, they can rejoice in the knowledge of the fact that they have proven themselves to be enemies of their own community.—Laredo Times.

THE Times hits the mail on the head with its usual good aim. It is too often true that "a prophet is not without honor save in his own country." In the case of a political leader, the disappointed persecutors in his own bailiwick are generally his most cordial haters.

GEN. ANSON MILLS, who is at the head of the American side of the International boundary commission, does not expect the work of defining the Mexican boundary to be completed for many years, not within his lifetime, he says. In the mean time the shifting course of the Rio Grande will probably change all of the line as surveyed by the commission along the stream. And meantime these bancos which the river is constantly forming on both sides will continue to be convenient hiding places for bandits. The two governments should agree upon some temporary method of management so that these nests of thieves and murderers, that are a constant menace to property owners on either side, might be cleared out.

HOME FOR POLITICIANS.

If President Roosevelt is determined to appoint only competent men to office, it is time some charitable soul founded a home for professional politicians.—Detroit Free Press.

One Way of Saving Money.

The story is told of a Chinese hotel keeper, who, having an impecunious American guest at an agreed price of a dollar a day, and no payment whatever had been made, voluntarily reduced the price of his guest's board to half a dollar a day, in order that, as he explained, he should not lose so much money by him.

Difficult Digestion

That is dyspepsia. It makes life miserable. Its sufferers eat not because they want to—but simply because they must.

They complain of a bad taste in the mouth, a tenderness at the pit of the stomach, a feeling of puffiness, headache, heartburn and what not.

Hood's Sarsaparilla cured Joseph F. Laine, Flanagan, Ky., who writes: "I was troubled with dyspepsia for a number of years and took medicine that did me no good. I was advised by friends to try Hood's Sarsaparilla which I did and it put my bowels in perfect condition, gave me strength and energy and made me feel like a new person."

Hood's Sarsaparilla Promises to cure and keeps the promise. Beware of substitutes. Buy Hood's and only Hood's.

THE ANARCHIST CZOLGOSZ

Asked for a Priest But Refused to Renounce Anarchy.

Auburn, N. Y., October 22.—Leon F. Czolgosz the assassin of President McKinley, who is awaiting electrocution in the prison here during the week commencing next Monday, fully realizing that his death is now a question of a few days, has asked for spiritual consolation and this afternoon received a visit from Rev. Szadinski, a Polish priest of the Roman Catholic church.

Father Szadinski, who is pastor of St. Stanislaus church, Rochester, was in the city attending the forty hours' devotions of St. Alphonsus church and was asked to visit the prisoner. This afternoon he went to the prison and remained about an hour. The interview between the priest and the prisoner proved very unsatisfactory to both. It took place in the condemned man's cell and the conversation was carried on in Polish. During the interview Czolgosz said that he had been baptized in the Roman Catholic faith in the Polish church in Detroit. He had abandoned the church early in life and had lost all faith in its teachings.

Father Szadinski urged him to renounce his belief in anarchy and return to the faith of his early days. Czolgosz declared his inability to do so and he was informed that unless he could the consolation of the church would be denied him. The priest urged the condemned man to consider this matter carefully and told him that if at any time he decided to re-embrace the faith he would return from his home in Rochester and stay with him until the end, Father Szadinski, before taking his departure, left with Czolgosz some Catholic literature printed in Polish and also some emblems of the church. Czolgosz assured Father Szadinski that in case he determined to accept the offices of religion, he would send for him, but he did not hold out much hope that he would renounce the doctrine of anarchy.

Warden Meade and Superintendent Collins at their conference in Albany yesterday arranged all the details and fixed upon those to be invited to witness the execution.

The law requires that invitations be sent out three days before the date of the execution and the law will be lived up to in the present instance.

An Insinuation.

Lawyer [examining witness]—Where was your maid at the time? Lady—In my boudoir, arranging my hair.

Lawyer—And were you there also?

Luxury for Mrs. Schwab.

Mrs. Charles M. Schwab, wife of the steel trust man, has a great fondness for traveling on railroad trains. When Mrs. Schwab was younger Mrs. Schwab often expressed the wish to be able to have a special car and ride all she pleased. It is with quiet satisfaction that Mr. Schwab says he has felt able to put a private car at his wife's disposal for the past year, and hopes to be able to do so as long as she may want it.
